Versus

Mr.Nishigandh Patil, Adv. for the Petitioner.
Smt.P.H.Kantharia, APP, for the State.

...

CORAM : S.B.MHASE AND
SMT.V.K.TAHILRAMANI,JJ.

DATED : DECEMBER 20, 2007.

P.C.:-

1. Heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is seeking extension of parole leave. The petitioner had earlier been granted parole on the ground of illness of his wife, who is suffering from kidney problem. The said period of parole expires on 22nd December, 2007. The petitioner is now seeking extension of the said parole period on the ground that his wife is suffering from diabetic nephropathy with impending kidney failure. To that effect, today the petitioner has produced a medical certificate dated 18th December, 2007 issued by Chief Medical Officer, KMC Hospital, Khopoli. The said certificate dated 18th December, 2007 is taken on record and marked "X" for identification.

3. The maximum period that parole can be granted is 90 days. On 22nd December, 2007 the petitioner would be completing 60 days of parole. Looking to the medical certificate, we are inclined to extend the period of parole by 15 days. The said extension would start from 23rd December, 2007. We make it clear that this extension of parole is being granted as a last chance to the petitioner.

4. Writ Petition is disposed of accordingly.
